

LIFE IS ENDED

Clouse Dies at County Jail From Overdose of Morphine.

End Came at 5:30 Saturday Evening.—Wife Lives in Shelby County.

John Clouse, of Piqua, Ohio, the blacksmith, who was overcome on the street Saturday afternoon, after taking an overdose of morphine, and who lingered along in an unconscious state for about two hours, died from the effects of the drug about half-past five Saturday evening in the corridors of the county jail.

The man had been a confirmed morphine fiend for over two years, and had succeeded in obtaining the deadly stuff from some one at different times during the day. His greed for the drug had led him to take too much and that, together with the whisky that he had been drinking is what caused his death.

All efforts made by Doctors Dillon and Wooden to save him at the county jail were of no avail as he had received the full effects of the drug, which had spread through his whole system, turning his body to a deep blue color.

In his pockets were found a bottle of whiskey, several memorandum books and a lot of tobacco. In one of the books was a newspaper clipping which gave a full account of a morphine eater in Texas who had become discouraged with his own failures in life and had ended it all very peacefully with an overdose. Aside from that it is not thought that Clouse had any intention of committing suicide.

From the time that he was first stricken he never regained consciousness and his last words were "Take me to my boarding house," and which he addressed to John Mack, who was holding him. These words were spoken near the C. & D. railway tracks on Main street.

Clouse came here from Piqua Friday morning and started to work at Martin Kelley's blacksmith shop, Saturday morning. He is said to have worked up to the time when he was first stricken in front of John McCarty's saloon.

Word was sent to his parents at Piqua of his death, and Clouse's body was removed from the jail to Wyatt's undertaking establishment, where it was prepared for shipment.

An undertaker from Piqua came here yesterday morning, and took the body back home on the C. & D. 9:03 train.

Clouse was about thirty-five years old and leaves a wife and one or two children. He had been separated from his wife for nine years. His family lives at Prosscott, Shelby county, Ind.

RUSHVILLE WINS

Greensburg Team Defeated in That City This Afternoon.

The Greensburg team met defeat at the hands of Rushville on its home grounds this afternoon, by a score of 2 to 0. The game was fast from start to finish. About twenty-five people from this city accompanied the Rushville team to Greensburg this morning.

The batteries were Pruitt and Morgan for Rushville. Donnell pitched for Greensburg. The game was called at 1:30 p. m.,

The authorities of Edinburg, in order to induce people to be vaccinated, offered half a crown—60 cents—to every person who would submit to the operation. There was a great rush upon the vaccination depots, with a great rush on the saloons a little later.

PRELIMINARY HEARING.

Garey Armstrong to be Tried Tomorrow Afternoon.

The case of Gary Armstrong, who is charged with grand larceny, has been set for a preliminary hearing in Mayor Stevens' court tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock.

Armstrong is the man who is alleged to have robbed Charles A. Murray's hardware store on the night of Monday, May 30th. He was arrested Friday night at the Smith hotel in Milroy, where the stolen goods are said to have been found in his trunk.

Armstrong still asserts his innocence and will fight the case. He has employed Megee & Kiplinger as his attorneys.

ADJOURNED TERM.

Judge Kirkpatrick Tries Case as Special Judge.

An adjourned term of court was held in this city today (Monday) with Judge Kirkpatrick, of Kokomo, as special judge in the case of Scott vs. Edgar, to declare a vendor's lien.

This case has been in court seven years, has twice gone to the supreme court and the defendant is now seeking a new trial.

There is only about $800 involved in the case, but it has been vigorously contested by both parties. The land in suit is near Raleigh.

OF LONG AGO

Old Time Singers Will Sing Next Sunday.

The old Diapason singers of Rush, Fayette, Decatur and Shelby counties, will hold their annual meeting next Sunday afternoon, June 12th, at the opera house, in this city.

The doors will be open at 1:30 p. m., and the singing led by director John A. Spurrier, will begin promptly at 2:00 p. m.

Every one should be in their places at 2:00 p. m., and none should fail to bring their old Diapason books, as they will be needed.

Mr. John A. Spurrier and Mr. A. G. Reeve are very anxious to have all present and hope to see several hundred respond and would like to have all the old Diapason singers become members of the organization which is permanent.

The general public are also invited to attend the meeting at the opera house and join in the exercises.

Those having the matter in charge kindly ask that all newspapers in this and surrounding counties copy this article or the facts set out in it so that each of the old singers will hear of the meeting here next Sunday.

WONDERFUL PROGRESS.

Made by the Christian Sunday School.

For some time past exceptional interest has been taken in the Christian Sunday school, but on yesterday, Children's day, all records were broken. The attendance was 307; collection $125.49. Dr. Gilbert's class lead with $40. Rev. Sniff's class lead in attendance with 52. The orchestra rendered some very fine special music. In the evening the regular Children's day program as announced in Saturday's Republican was carried out in fine style, the music being of a high order and much appreciated. It is estimated that fully one thousand people were present at the exercises last night. On account of the large increase in attendance, the Sunday school will be held in the main auditorium of the church, beginning next Sunday.

There Should Be More Bible Study

By LESLIE M. SHAW, Secretary of the Treasury

THE Bible is not now taught in the public schools, and I do not say it ought to be taught there. In our busy life it is not taught in our homes.

IT IS SELDOM TAUGHT EVEN IN THE PULPIT. You will learn much about salvation and the plan for redemption if you listen to the sermons, but you won't know much about the Bible if you depend upon getting your knowledge of it from the pulpit.

THE ONLY PLACE ON THIS EARTH WHERE THE BIBLE IS TAUGHT IS IN THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

EPISCOPAL GATHERING

Archdeacon Walton, of the Indianapolis Diocese Preaches Here.

Sunday night, in the Pythian hall at the corner of Second and Morgan, Archdeacon Walton, of the Indianapolis Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church, preached an interesting sermon to a goodly number of people, the majority of whom are members of that church.

He began by a brief response to those points which distinguish this church from the denominations already in the field—that is its method of government, bishops, presbyters and deacons corresponding those assembled for legislation to the Senate and Congress of the United States; its ministerial robes—white, the livery of heaven and the band about the neck the "Yoke of Christ;" the prayer book, carrying the principle of the hymn book through the prayer and Bible reading of the service, etc.

Then followed a brief liturgical service from leaflet and a practical talk or sermon, the main points of which were that the mind of God in all minor and major details of life was more perfectly revealed in the Old Testament than in the New, and that Christians were allowed the liberty of studying and appreciating God's ideas under the Christian dispensation and applying them under a system, foreign to the old dispensation, of perfect liberty.

He directed special attention to the inconsistencies of Christians in trying to keep the lesser obligations of the law and ignore the mightier, mainly the law of service and the law of giving, both of time, labor and means.

After the conclusion of the service, the archdeacon removed his vestments and discussed the issues of the organization and the advisability of erecting an Episcopal church building. He referred to the appreciable number of people in the town of Rushville who were ardently desirous of their church services and the advantage to the town of presenting the inducement of a church of their own to Episcopalians who desire to make a residence here.

He referred to a remark made to him that "it was not wise to draw people out of their present denominational associations by introducing a new church." He said "I am in perfect sympathy with the spirit of that remark. I wish everyone to understand that I do not wish any accessions to the Episcopal church from persons who are associated with other denominations and are satisfied with that association. I shall not make the slightest effort to alienate such people. But, my dear brethren, who constitute the ministry of the Christian denominations of Rushville will, I think, agree with me when I say I do not wish any one in my church who does not, through sympathy or conviction belong there. If persons are Episcopalians, all will agree that they should be affiliated with their own church and their highest spiritual interests are thereby subserved."

He quoted from the address of a Methodist presiding elder on the sea board. In a public address to the Methodists he said "I am rejoiced to see that Episcopal church spire finally indicating the presence of an Episcopal church in this town. The method of spiritual culture in that church is very distinct from our own and men of different temperaments are reached by different methods. Many of those who are not reached by our old organizations may be reached by this church. God grant that this may be another gateway into heaven for souls who might otherwise be lost."

The Archdeacon deprecated the attitude of some people who appeared to think that while they had a right to truth and conviction in matters of religion, the Episcopalians could not take their religion on or off as they would a coat.

He concluded by a reference to the hearty co-operation which he had enjoyed from brethren of different denominations.

FRATERNAL DAY

Secret Orders Pay Fitting Tribute to Their Dead.

Not in many years has so many people attended decoration services as they did that of yesterday, when the Red Men, Knights of Pythias, Odd Fellows and Maccabees held a union service.

Each of the lodges met at their respective halls and then marched to Morgan street, where the line was formed, the band taking the lead, followed by the I. O. R. M., K. of M., the speakers carriage, the K. of P. and the I. O. O. F. in their order.

Each man in the procession carried a bouquet of beautiful flowers. It was estimated that there were more than 400 men in line, the K. of P. and Red Men, each contributing over a hundred, while the Odd-Fellows and Maccabees contributed almost that number.

The march to the cemetery began about two o'clock, the new concert band playing some beautiful and appropriate music. Hundreds of people were along the line of march many of them falling in and accompanying them to the cemetery.

After reaching the cemetery the program as given in Saturday's paper was carried out, the band playing some very fine music. Rev. V. W. Tevis delivered a short address which is said by many to be one of the finest ever delivered on a like occasion, after which Judge Ellison delivered a fine and highly complimented address.

The flowers carried by the members of the several orders were taken at the gate of the cemetery by a committee and placed on the graves of the deceased members.

Peach Crop Prospects.

Cheering news comes from the great peach orchards stretched along the banks of the Ohio in Southern Indiana. The trees were filled with an unusual amount of bloom and there are prospects for the best crop in the history of the state. This is unusual as the fashion is to have the peach crop all killed off everywhere by the first of April or May. If we can get plenty of good peaches it will console us for the loss of several other things.

HANGS IN BALANCE

Russia Will Stand or Fall by Port Arthur is the Belief.

Generals and Highest Authorities are Not Agreed on Question of Policy and Strategy.

Tokio, June 6.—The Russian gunboat Giliak was torpedoed and destroyed at Port Arthur Saturday.

Tien Tsin, June 6.—Four thousand Russians belonging to General Stakelberg's brigade on May 31 attacked 1,500 Japanese occupying a position five miles south of Wafangtien. The Russians were repulsed, losing 200 killed and 400 wounded. The Japanese lost more than 100 killed.

London, June 6.—That the curtain is drawn again over the progress of the war probably indicates that important events are impending or afoot. The explosions heard at Port Arthur suggest that the Russians have renewed their attempts to remove obstructions in the mouth of the harbor. All kinds of rumors are current, few of which appear to have any reliable basis.

Various special correspondents in St. Petersburg report increasing depression in Russia over the prospect of the fall of Port Arthur, and say that wild reports are in circulation as to dissensions between the generals and the highest officials over questions of policy and strategy. The Daily Mail gives great prominence to a statement "from a Russian correspondent" declaring that Russia will stand or fall by Port Arthur as far as the government's prestige with the lower classes is concerned.

"Internal troubles are inevitable," the correspondent says, "should the fortress fall. Count Lamsdorff displays a strong personality, but his position is precarious and he is likely to be sacrificed as a scapegoat to popular indignation at the way the war has been conducted. Although it is said that General Kuropatkin has lost favor at court, no change in the command of the army is contemplated."

The St. Petersburg correspondent of Reuters' Telegram agency says that increasing anxiety is felt over the restlessness of Chinese troops on the Manchurian frontier. The Morning Post's correspondent in St. Petersburg goes so far as to say that Russia is preparing to cope with a serious Chinese invasion.

A dispatch to the Standard from St. Petersburg asserts that no preparations have been made to organize a transport service down the great waterways of the Sungari and Amur rivers.

Great indignation is felt over the discovery that several wealthy Russian firms "secretly assisted in the recent Japanese loan."

A dispatch to the Morning Post from Shanghai says that some of the warships at Port Arthur have been beached and their guns removed to the land works. This Shanghai correspondent also says that Field Marshal Yamagata has been appointed viceroy of the territories Japan has occupied since the war began. This is the only reference today to the statement of the Daily Express Saturday morning that Field Marshal Yamagata had been appointed commander-in-chief of the Japanese army of invasion.

RUSSIANS RETREAT

Japanese Score in Two Brisk Engagements.

Tokio, June 6.—The Japanese and Russian forces located north of Pu Lan Tien, which were in a series of brushes during the early part of last week, had another encounter on Friday near Chu Chia Tun. On that day the Japanese cavalrymen met the Russians at noon. The Russians numbered 2,000 men and were composed of infantry, detachments of cavalry and artillery. They were pressing the Japanese cavalry when the Japanese assembled their entire force and engaged the enemy. The Russians drew off gradually, and at 5:30 in the afternoon they retired to Telishu. The Japanese suffered four men killed and four wounded in this fighting.

A report has been received here from General Kuroki saying that on Friday last a detachment was dispatched from Ai Yang Cheng to the northeast of Feng Wang Cheng to make a reconnaissance toward Chai Matsi. This detachment encountered 600 Cossacks and after a brisk engagement the Russians retreated. General Kuroki reports that the Russian loss was heavy. The Japanese suffered one man killed and three wounded.

Giving Out False Impressions.
New Chwang, June 6.—The Russians are printing a newspaper in Chinese at Mukden for the purpose of influencing the natives. The latest copy received at New Chwang says that Japan attempted to float a second loan in America for $3,750,000, but was coldly rejected. Other contents of the paper explain that the Russian loss in the Yalu battle was due to the preponderance of Japanese cavalry and says also that the Russians will soon dictate peace terms in Tokio and that the leading Japanese statesmen will be reduced to ricksha coolies.

Great Explosions Heard.
Washington, June 6.—The Japanese legation has received the following cablegram from the home government at Tokio bearing on events: Admiral Togo reports that according to a message received by him through wireless telegraphy from the captain of the cruiser Callose, which was cruising off Port Arthur, four masts, one with wireless telegraphic instruments and a sentry box, were seen on the top of Laoté-shan. Great explosions were heard and rising of dense smoke was observed repeatedly in the direction of Port Arthur during Saturday.

Orders Not Yet Sent.
St. Petersburg, June 6.—According to information received here General Kuroki has been suffering from a mild attack of typhus fever, but he has now recovered. The general belief is that General Kuropatkin will not advance to the relief of Port Arthur. In any case orders to do so have not yet been transmitted.

Carrier Pigeons in Service.
New Chwang, June 6.—Two carrier pigeons arrived here Sunday from General Stoessel at Port Arthur. The Russians will not divulge the messages carried by the birds, but declare they contain good information, and are very cheerful since the pigeons arrived.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.
At Louisville, 6; St. Paul, 7.
At Columbus, 2; Minneapolis, 6.
At Milwaukee, 10; Toledo, 1.

The local team went to Greensburg today, where they meet the Reds, of that city.

In Wagner and Pruitt the local team has two excellent slabmen.

The scores of other Indiana teams yesterday were:
Greensfield 3; Matthews 4.
Duesseldorfers 9; Shelbyville 6.
Indianapolis Reserves 3; Recruits of Louisville 2.
Seymour 17; Madison 2.
Greensburg 6; Harlems of Cincinnati 3. Osgood 6; Price Hill 3.
Anderson 7; Frankfort 5.
Munice 4; Dayton 3 (14 innings).

Harper, of the Cincinnati, was very much disappointed at not being able to win over McGinnity. He said he would have sacrificed a good part of his salary to have won.

Indianapolis is playing better ball than they did at the beginning of the season.

Harper clearly out pitched McGinnity in the great game Saturday, but luck was against him.

Richland Township Convention.

The Republican Township Convention, of Richland township, for the purpose of nominating township officers will be held on Saturday, June 11th, at the Richland school house, at 1 o'clock p. m. BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

Clews and theories at Bedford in the Shafer case come thick and fast, but result in nothing more.

The Democratic joint Senatorial convention for the counties of Shelby and Johnson will be held tomorrow. The nomination is conceded to Ert Slack, of Franklin.

That Rushville is gradually becoming an "open" town becomes more evident each Sunday, and it was boastfully said a number of times yesterday that "a man needn't go thirsty."

Speaking of the Russians' claim that their interests in China and Japan are paramount to that of any nation, the New York World says: The effrontery of the Russian assumption that the land of the Czar has either "interests" or any other claim which would justify the conquest of China which it for years has planned is revealed in the figures of Chinese trade with foreign nations in 1903. Reducing Haikwan tariffs to dollars, the whole trade of Russia, including Russian Manchuria, with China compares with that of Great Britain, Japan and the United States as shown in the following table:

	Chinese Exports	Chinese Imports
Russia	$8,176,380	$1,507,200
Great Britain	$6,415,390	$32,396,390
Japan	$19,473,120	$32,190,730
United States	$12,497,920	$16,557,340

In a word, Russia buys much tea of China. For the rest of her trade, in spite of direct communication along a vast frontier, is trifling in the extreme. It is easy to see in these figures the significance of the Japanese, British and American contention for the "open door."

The sad occurrence in this city Saturday, when a man addicted to the use of morphine died from its effects, shows the importance of an effort now being made by the druggists of Indiana to have the sale of such poisons limited by statute. The Indiana Pharmaceutical Association met at Ft. Wayne last week and considered that question.

Arthur Timberlake, the secretary of the association, is now preparing to introduce a resolution asking the association to take a stand on the narcotic question.

The proposition is that the pharmacy law be amended so that drugs, narcotics and other poisons shall not be sold from drug stores and pharmacies except on specific prescription from reputable licensed physicians. In this manner it is hoped to rid society of the fiends of morphine, opium, cocaine, strychnine, quinine and other drugs that are used as stimulants by victims of their effects.

The cocaine fiend is most frequently encountered. There are hundreds of them in the State, chiefly among the colored population. The crimes that can be attributed to "coke" fiends are innumerable and the fact that many drug stores in this city sell $10 worth of adulterated cocaine daily, is sufficient to show the extent of the harm now being done by the drug.

A DIFFICULT POINT

"Excess Vote" Rule Does Not Seem to Be Generally Understood.

Indianapolis, June 6.—It will perhaps be a long time before the Republican state committee gets through interpreting the new code of rules it promulgated some time ago. Of course there is no more controversy over the "excess vote rule," but the fact that a majority of the counties in a joint legislative district can't rule when there is one protest does not seem to appeal to everyone. The latest contest is reported from the senatorial district of Warren, Benton and Fountain counties, which Fremont Goodwine of Williamsport has been representing. Perry Lewis of Covington, a member of the last house was a candidate before the district was changed by the decision of the supreme court holding the reapportionment act unconstitutional. Then Goodwine entered the fight. It seems that he has lined up Benton and Warren counties, which gives him a majority, and they have called a convention. Fountain county is protesting on behalf of Lewis, and the matter will have to be decided by Chairman Goodrich.

A well-known Republican leader made the statement today that the Indiana delegation to the Chicago convention will make no public attempt to boom Senator Fairbanks for the vice presidential nomination, as the members will go there understanding that he prefers such a course. He said that the senator is very anxious that no effort be made by Indiana to put him forward for second place. He does not want the impression created that he is in any sense a candidate, for it is stated here that under no circumstances will he permit the use of his name if there is to be a contest. As the date for the convention approaches interest in the part Indiana will take becomes deeper. It is generally believed now that the nominee for vice president will be an Indian, which as a matter of course will be Senator Fairbanks, yet owing to his own reserved attitude there is much speculation as to what will be done. The interest is naturally heightened in Indiana because the nomination of Senator Fairbanks for vice president would result in a very hard fight for his present position.

A report that Senator Fairbanks has informed certain Republican leaders here that he will accept the nomination for vice president and that Congressman James A. Hemenway is now en route to Washington as a bearer of the news to advisers of President Roosevelt, is regarded generally by party leaders as one of the worst "pipe stories" of the last month. That Senator Fairbanks has not been talking to anyone here in a way that would reassure them that he would accept the nomination for president is generally conceded and one said he knew that it is not true that Congressman Hemenway has been made the bearer of such tidings to Washington, for Mr. Hemenway, he declared, told him that he did not learn anything from Senator Fairbanks regarding the vice presidency. A lot of "pipe" is being written about Senator Fairbanks, but he is maintaining the same attitude he took when his boom was started.

The political gossips who were informed yesterday that Louis P. Benau of Salem will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for state treasurer are wondering if it will not keep Warder W. Stevens out of the race for governor. Stevens also resides at Salem, and while he has not indicated that he would accept the nomination even if it came by acclamation, yet it is stated that he has been quietly conferring with the men who will shape the convention. But if the Democrats of Salem should present the name of Benau it is already pointed out that it would not be good policy for them to present Stevens, and as Benau is already in the field it is likely that he will receive first consideration.

Dutch Troops Rout Natives.

Batavia, Java, June 6.—The Netherlands troops have captured a native fortress at Tampering, in the Gajoe country, island of Sumatra. The Dutch losses were thirty-three men killed or wounded. One hundred and seventy-six Achinese were killed.

MR. COTTON'S WORK

He Has Demonstrated His Efficiency as Superintendent of Public Instruction.

State Superintendent Fasset A. Cotton is well and favorably known to the educational people of the state, and has also a wide acquaintance with the general public. Mr. Cotton is still a young man. He was born in Johnson county and received his early training in one of the first township graded schools established in the state. He taught in the schools of Henry county and spent several terms in the State Normal School. He was elected County Superintendent of Henry county and was regarded as one of the most progressive superintendents in the state. He was Deputy State Superintendent for six years, four years under David M. Geeting and two under Frank L. Jones. He gave up this office to do some work which he had long contemplated. He entered Butler college and took his bachelor's degree. Then he went at once to the University of Chicago and took his master's degree. During these years he placed special stress upon educational problems, and his wide experience in school work made this study very profitable. As a result he came to the office in March, 1903, admirably equipped to direct the educational work of the state. He set for himself a high standard of excellence and mapped out the work he hoped to accomplish. Mindful of the great advance that had been made by his predecessors, he proposed to do his work so well that at the end of his term he would leave the educational affairs of Indiana not only as good as he found them, but better. So far he has made good what he proposed to do. He is interested in every phase of education. He proposes that every boy and girl in the state shall have a chance at education and that city, town and country children shall have equal opportunity. He proposes that the profession of teaching shall be put upon a higher plane. He has done everything possible to have the state creditably represented at the St. Louis fair, and it is believed that visitors will find a splendid exhibit.

Mr. Cotton is a man of tireless energy and has led a strenuous life during his present term. He knows the needs of the state and he knows how to do things. With all this the best thing that can be said of Mr. Cotton is that he is genuine. Those who know him recognize in him a man to whom educational interests in Indiana can safely be trusted.

A State of Opportunity.

By so much, therefore, must our admiration be greater for the great Middle Western States—Indiana, for example—which have built up successful public school systems for their whole rural population. In Indiana, as in most of the adjacent States, a boy or a girl may attend a public school from the beginning of school life till the completion of a college course without expense for tuition. Some schools are bad, some good, some better. As Miss Shaw points out in her article on Indiana the excellence of the school depends on the teachers. But the great fact stands out—and a parallel can be found in the rural parts of no other country—that a well-developed and intelligently conducted public school system exists there; and it is complete. An Indiana lad may become a scholar in literature or in science, or he may become a master of agriculture or of mechanics—he may be trained for any pursuit practically free of cost for tuition; and a school, during his earlier life, is near enough his own home to be easily accessible.—World's Work.

Wall Street in Control Again.

Bryan has steadfastly opposed the domination of the Democratic party by the Wall street clique. He is not now advocating the nomination of any particular candidate for president, but most of his followers are supporting W. R. Hearst. It is not hard to see that Bryan and his crowd are going to lose out, and that the St. Louis convention will nominate some one entirely satisfactory to the Wall street politicians who were in control when Cleveland was president. The contest from now on will not be between Bryan and the so-called reorganizers, for Bryan, it seems, is already defeated. The contest will be between the Tammany and the anti-Tammany Democrats of New York. If the anti-Tammany crowd wins Parker is the man picked at this time. If the Tammany crowd wins McClellan it is believed will be the man. In any event Wall street will resume control of the Democratic party and again direct its policies.—Seymour Republican.

CROWD ROSE UP

Men Who Wanted to See a Bull Fight Wouldn't Be Disappointed.

BURNED THE BUILDING

When the Authorities Stopped Brutal Exhibition the Audience Arose in Its Might.

When It Couldn't Get Its Money Back a Resort Was Made to Flames.

St. Louis, June 6.—Incensed over their failure to see a "genuine Spanish bull fight" which the authorities had ordered stopped, a riot was started in an arena near the World's Fair grounds last evening by a crowd of 2,500 men and boys, who were unable to get their money back, and the building was burned to the ground. Four men were placed under arrest charged with the destruction of property. The crowd, thinking these men were connected with the show, made an attempt to mob them, and in their encounter with the deputy sheriffs a number were roughly handled and some received scalp wounds. The building is said to have cost $25,000. It is a total loss, with no insurance, it is reported.

The initial performance by the company of Spanish bull fighters had been advertised for Sunday, but Governor Dockery, to whom numerous protests had been made, ordered that it should not be allowed to take place. Despite these orders a large crowd assembled in the arena at the advertised time of opening. Before the regular performance a number of cowboys drove in some bulls which they ran around the arena in true wild west style. The crowd soon became tired of this and called for the bull fight.

The announcement was then made that the bull fight would be proceeded with. As the matadores came into the ring a county official handed the announcer a paper informing him that the proposed show could not take place. When this became known to the crowd they leaped into the arena and demanded the return of their money. Failing in this, the crowd went to the office, which was located in a small building outside the arena, and began to stone the structure. This was followed by attempts to burn the arena, which was an immense building constructed of pine. The efforts were finally successful and the whole structure was soon in ruins.

A call was made for the fire department, but the single engine that responded became stuck in the mud and there was nothing to stop the progress of the flames.

DEATH IN FLAMES

Horrible Holocaust Occurs in Peoria Distillery Fire.

Peoria, Ill., June 6.—Fire swept the distillery plant of Corning & Co., Saturday evening, destroying every building in the plant excepting the distillery proper containing the cookers, burning fourteen men and injuring as many more, suffocating 3,000 cattle being fed in the sheds and destroying upward of 30,000 barrels of high-proof spirits. The disaster entails a loss of near a million dollars.

The dead are: John Leppin, Louis Bennd, William Finley, Jr., E. Brown, E. Hogan, William Crowl, William Field, John Hobecker, Louis Sach, Jos. Zimmerman, and four unidentified. The collapse of the eleven-story building created a mass of debris which it will require days to clear. Undoubtedly some persons were burned who will never be accounted for.

Past Differences Forgotten.

Washington, June 6.—In the presence of thousands of former Confederate and former Union soldiers and of numbers of officers of the United States army and the G. A. R., the first formal memorial exercises ever held over the graves in the Confederate section of Arlington cemetery took place Sunday. As the result of a movement initiated by the late President McKinley, the Confederate dead have now been gathered in one large and beautiful circle in the southern part of the cemetery, where the graves have been marked with separate stones, which were yesterday fittingly decorated.

Delonged in Washington.

Washington, June 6.—It is ascertained that Mrs. Nan Patterson, who has been arrested by the police of New York city in connection with the shooting of "Caesar" Young, the turfman, is a Washington girl. Her father, John P. Patterson, is well known in real estate circles of this city. It is stated that Mr. Patterson is in New York looking after his daughter's interests.

Excursionists' Narrow Escape.

Rossville, Ind., June 6.—While running at a high rate of speed a Monon train was wrecked by a defective rail Sunday near here. The engine and baggage car were crushed to pieces and four coaches crowded with excursionists were derailed, but none of the 300 passengers was seriously injured.

Leaves St. Louis.

St. Louis, June 6.—Miss Alice Roosevelt, who has been the guest of St. Louis friends for the last nine days, left for Washington yesterday.

COUNTY NEWS

Glenwood.

Mr. Perry Meek, who moved away from here some weeks ago to Fairmount and engaged in grocery and meat business has written to know if any houses are for rent now. This shows that those who move away are most likely to move back.

Mr. Everett Stevens and family, of near New Salem, were visiting J. F. Mapes and family on Sabbath.

Mr. Harvey Stevens, of Connersville, was visiting his wife's aunt, Mrs. Mary Reed, on Sabbath.

Rev. T. J. Anthony preached a very powerful sermon, the subject of which was "The Real Test of Love to God is to Love Your Neighbor." He preached the pure and undefiled Gospel as he most generally does. He will hereafter every other Sabbath afternoon preach upon some special subject. The subject he could not announce today because of the exchanges in pulpits with some brother minister. But when Bro. Anthony knows for sure that he will be here himself the subject will be announced through the columns of the Republican.

Little Willie Chew is made very prominent in the sporting circles of our quiet village by catching as many fish as he could get in a two gallon bucket every time he goes fishing. This may seem incredulous for he goes fishing two or three times a week.

Wm. Ensemeyer, who worked for O. L. Nash on the farm for 28 years, quit working for him in February and had been away from the farm three months and that being during the time he was visiting in Old Germany, is back again.

Mr. O. L. Nash was at Tipton last week. He was attending the funeral of a relative.

Mr. Lee Link, who has been selling fruit trees in Illinois, came home on Saturday evening.

Mr. Fielding, the postmaster, is recovering from his spell of sickness.

Rev. T. J. Anthony will deliver the address to the Red Men at the Fairview cemetery on next Sunday at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Ed. Harlow, the R. F. D. carrier on Route 27, had visitors on last Sabbath.

Mr. T. J. Stephens moved into the property lately vacated by Perry Meek, and Rev. Cooke, of the U. P. church, will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Stephens.

Mr. Morris would make a good J. P. and he is a good Republican. Why not elect him?

The Glenwood E. L. met on Thursday evening and elected the following officers: President, Chas. Holland; first vice president, Mrs. Hattie Dunham; second vice president, Mrs. Holland; third vice president, Mrs. Lizzie Murphy; secretary, Chas. Mingle; treasurer, Mrs. Nellie Ruff; organist, Miss Lottie Murphy.

FEARS OF A DEADLOCK

Democratic Leaders Worried About the Power of the Minority.

St. Louis, June 6.—The members of the subcommittee on arrangements for the coming national convention are very busy men these days. All the important details connected with the seating of the great hall have now been completed and minor details are rapidly receiving attention. It is probable that this convention will have a larger delegation than any similar body in the past, if Porto Rico's demand for seats is recognized. As now constituted the national convention will be composed of 994 delegates, elected from the states, territories, the District of Columbia, Hawaii and Alaska. The basis of apportionment for the states is two delegates for each congressional district in the state and four delegates for the two United States senators from each of the states, making four at large. The territories, etc., are allotted six delegates each. There is a possibility that the convention may seat a delegation from Porto Rico or six delegates, in which event the total number of delegates composing the convention will be 1,000.

By the ancient custom of the Democratic party, it requires two-thirds of the convention to nominate a president or vice president. This creates an interesting question which has come in for a good bit of discussion. Should some minority candidate come into the convention with 331-23 votes, or—if 1,000 delegates are seated—with 334 votes and should be able to maintain this strength against all assaults, a deadlock would result which might hold the convention for days or indefinitely. With the promise of several candidates before the convention, that one or the other of the minority interests may be able to effectively control a third of the voting strength is not by any means a remote contingency, and the length of the deadlock, in such case, would simply be a question of staying qualities. It is even admitted that the leaders are fearing just such a situation.

Within the last few years the various colonies of Europeans in Egypt have built their own hospitals. There are now in Cairo French, German, Austrian, Anglo-American and Italian hospitals.

BIG PREPARATIONS

Have Been Made For Entertaining the Indiana G. A. R. at Winona.

LAVISH ENTERTAINMENT

Warsaw and the Assembly Ground Will be Decorated in Sumptuous Style For the Veterans.

The Nights Will be Made Spectacular With Electrical and Pyrotechnic Effects.

Warsaw, Ind., June 6.—Warsaw and Winona are making great preparations to entertain the delegates and visiting veterans of the civil war during the three days' encampment of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, June 14 to 16 inclusive. The plans for decorating both places are on a magnificent scale, and the electrical illuminations and fireworks display each night of the encampment will make both points a scene of splendor. A feature of the first night's program will be a Mardi Gras parade, with brass bands and fireworks accompaniment. Several hundred persons en masque will participate.

The twenty-fifth annual encampment will be composed of delegates to the number of 1,700—a larger delegate body than the department has ever had, owing to the fact that each past post commander is entitled to a voice in the meeting. The principal sessions will be held in the Winona auditorium.

TICKLISH SITUATION

Sultan of Morocco Between Uncle Sam and Raisuli.

Tangier, June 6.—The sultan's authorization to comply with Raisuli's demands cannot be received for a day or two. If the sultan fully acquiesces in the demands of the release of the captives may be expected shortly, but that by no means settles the situation, for having twice succeeded in defying Europe and the sultan, Raisuli's success will tempt the tribesmen to further outrages.

The presence of the American fleet affords a temporary feeling of security, but the moment the fleet is withdrawn, unless some permanent form of protection is substituted, the danger will become greater than ever. The European population is most grateful to the Americans for having promptly sent warships. Full confidence is felt that the American government will not withdraw until some guarantee shall have been given that Europe recognizes the situation and demands energetic action.

Changed Their Program.

Lisbon, Portugal, June 6.—It is stated here that the United States cruisers Baltimore, Olympia and Cleveland will not come to Lisbon but will stay at Tangier pending a settlement of the difficulty arising out of the detention of Ion Perdicaris and Cromwell Varley, respectively citizens of the United States and Great Britain by the bandit Raisuli.

Tangier the Object of Attention.

Malaga, June 6.—The Spanish battleships Pelayo and Numancia and the armored cruiser Cardinal Cisneros have left here for Tangier, Morocco.

VIEWED BY THOUSANDS

Liberty Bell Attracts Attention on Its Northwestern Tour.

Milwaukee, June 6.—The liberty bell reached Milwaukee Sunday on a special train on schedule time and was viewed during its stay of two and a half hours by several thousand persons, including a large number of school children. There was no formal program. The train then proceeded on its preliminary northwestern tour, stops being made at Watertown, Portage, Sparta, LaCrosse and Minnesota points.

Death in Runaway Car.

Burlington, Ia., June 6.—A heavily loaded electric streetcar rushed down Valley street hill yesterday afternoon and was wrecked against a shade tree. The passengers jumped as the car flew along, sixteen being badly injured. Mrs. Joseph Keen was killed. Several others had arms and legs broken and many were badly cut about the head and shoulders.

Couldn't Face Misfortunes.

Philadelphia, June 6.—W. H. Dorry, aged sixty years, and his wife Lizzie, forty years of age, were found dead at their home last evening, death in each case being due to a bullet wound. It is the belief of the police that Dorry shot his wife and then killed himself. Dorry had been out of employment for some time.

Hearst Turned Down in Texas.

Fort Worth, Tex., June 6.—Returns received by the Fort Worth Record from 150 counties that held primaries Saturday in Texas, show that fifty-six counties instructed for Parker, ten for Hearst and the remainder uninstructed. Most of the uninstructed delegates are reported as Parker men.

Use Law as a Cudgel.

Cincinnati, June 6.—A score of barbers were arrested here Sunday for violating the Sunday law. The union voted to close the shops on Sunday. Most of the proprietors objected and many of them were arrested on warrants sworn out by the employees.

A Nice Point of Law.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., June 6.—Judge Downey has set the time for the hearing of the Gillespie habeas corpus writ for Monday, June 13. On that day James Gillespie will be brought here from Rising Sun to appear. A nice point of law is involved and Judge Downey's decision is awaited with deep interest.

Change in Management.

St. Louis, June 6.—Joseph Florey has tendered his resignation as secretary of the national world's fair commission, to take effect July 1, when he will be succeeded, it is said, by Laurence H. Grahame, a New York newspaper man.

Brazil now has 143 cotton mills.

Fatal Collision at Sea.

Vineyard Haven, Mass., June 6.—The barge Lorberry of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal company was sunk off Vineyard Sound lightship during a dense fog early Sunday, through a collision with the steamer Tallahassee, Savannah for Boston. Captain Burroughs of the barge was drowned. The Tallahassee was saved from sinking by her water-tight compartments and arrived here last evening. Her passengers were sent to Boston by rail.

Streetcars Do Not Run.

Houston, Tex., June 6.—The utmost quiet prevailed Sunday. No attempt was made to run streetcars and no crowds collected on the streets. It is reported that the company has increased its force of strike breakers by eighty men.

Editorial Association Meeting.

Lafayette, Ind., June 6.—The Northern Indiana Editorial association, which was organized in 1869, will hold its 34th annual meeting in this city on Thursday and Friday, June 16 and 17.

VISITORS ENJOY THE WORLD'S FAIR AT LITTLE COST

First-class Accommodations Furnished for the Thousands Within the Grounds—Reservations can be Made in Advance if Desired.

The folks who raised a hue and cry about the lack of accommodations at the World's Fair and the prospect of high prices at hotels, have had to take a back seat, for the World's Fair Management, keenly alive to the fact that accommodations and moderate rates must be furnished to the people, to assure the success of the Fair, have built right within the grounds a magnificent hotel, capable of entertaining tens of thousands of visitors. This hotel, which is called The Inside Inn, surpasses in size, in general equipments and in convenience anything ever attempted in the way of world's fair accommodations. It stands in the southeast corner of the grounds 200 feet above the level of the city and is readily reached from the Union Station by the Market St., LaCade and Contau Ave. car lines, or from any of the Exposition gates by means of the Intramural Railway which passes its doors. It is three stories high, with broad verandas extending round the entire building. It is 400 feet wide and 800 feet long, contains 2,257 bedrooms and has a dining room capable of seating 2,500 people at a single meal. The inn is run on both the American and European plans, and the rates vary from $1.50 to $5.50 per day, European, and from $3.00 to $7.00, American, including admission in both classes. The range of prices is determined solely by the size and location of the rooms—all guests having equal dining-room privileges. To those whose visit to the Exposition must be short, the convenience of thus living within the grounds cannot be over estimated. All wearisome and annoying street car or suburban train service is avoided and no admission fee other than the first is required. The saving thus affected is obvious. The enormous capacity of the Inside Inn assures ample accommodations for all—no matter when or in what numbers they come—and the rates will be found sufficiently elastic to meet every size of pocket.

Reservations can be made for any period during the life of the Fair. An interesting booklet, giving full details will be mailed to anyone addressing The Inside Inn, Administration Bldg., World's Fair Grounds, St. Louis. 2

PRINTERS ERRORS

Some Funny, Others Peculiarly Embarrassing.

Typographical errors which are ever appearing even in the best regulated newspapers, while sometimes of a serious nature, are generally funny, sometimes ridiculously so. We clip from Tid-Bits, the following examples of what might happen:

Horace Greeley was noted for his wretched writing, which puzzled many a printer. Once he wrote, "Tis true, 'tis pity, and pity 'tis true," quoted from Shakespeare. It appeared the next day:

"Tis two, 'tis fifty, 'tis fifty 'tis fifty-two."

A paper printed this extraordinary piece of news in connection with a great demonstration: "The snouts of ten thousand rent the air." Of course the reporter had written "shouts" instead of "snouts."

Bishop W. A. Candler was once advocating a more liberal loosing of the purse strings, and told his audience that several years ago he sent an article to a paper, in which, he said: "We pray too loud and work too little." The compositor, consciously or unconsciously, perpetrated a little joke, for when the article appeared it read: "We bray too loud and work too little." "I let it go at that," said the bishop: "The fact is, I believe the printer was right, and I never ventured to correct him."

Deaths.

Mrs. A. C. Martin, of Rising Sun, Ind., who has been spending the winter in this city, died at 3 o'clock this morning of senility, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. R. McClanahan. Mrs. Martin had been very feeble for some time. The remains will be sent to Rising Sun Wednesday morning at 7:46 over the Big Four.

MET DEFEAT

Washingtons Win Yesterday's Game on Home Team's Errors.

Game a Veritable Pitcher's Battle from Start to Finish.—

Rushville at Greensburg Today.

Best Blood Remedy

Hargrove & Mullin

Through their own errors the home team met its first defeat on the home grounds, yesterday afternoon at the hands of the Indianapolis Washingtons, a team which they have defeated here twice this year.

Errors at short and third were wholly responsible for the defeat. Wagner, the local pitcher put up great ball, but the boys could not get together and support him. Shea, the Indianapolis twirler, put up good ball, but more hits were obtained off his delivery than were secured from Wagner, who held the visitors down to two hits.

The game was full of exciting plays, several features being the base running on the part of Morgan and Wagner in the eighth inning between second base and the home plate, when runs were vital. Both succeeded in getting back to their bases safely under the most difficult circumstances. Two other features were the double plays by Wagner, Pearsey and Lyons, the base running and batting of Carter, the batting of Shea and the work of third baseman Lotshaw, of the Washingtons. The game took on a sort of a scrappy aspect at several times, but the Washingtons started the trouble when fielder Bartlett attempted to knock Alexander off third base after the latter had put him out.

Several poor decisions on the part of the umpire also marked the game, the home team getting a little the worst of the bargain. It was just a case of "couldn't get together and play ball."
